Alma Mater

All hail to thee, loved Notre Dame,
As Alma Mater we're proud thee to claim.
Thy loyal daughters we'll ever be,
We pledge, Alma Mater, allegiance to thee.
In hallowed memory, enshrined in each heart,
Are all the great lessons thou strovest to impart.
Then hail! Thrice hail!
We'll ever be true to thee and our banner of gold and blue.
Then hail! We'll ever be true to thee, Notre Dame.

Should ever pleasures siren lay
Tempt us from duty's path to stray,
Or sorrow darken life's rugged way
Then Faith be our guide, our light and stay.
Reflecting through life thy virtues so rare,
We'll crown thee with honor for thy loving care.
Be life's way obscure or up heights of fame,
We'll never forget thee, loved Notre Dame.

Down ages still in rapturous song
May grateful daughters the strains prolong
'Till eternal portals open wide
With thee loved Queen fore'er to abide.
At that great reunion of Notre Dame,
We'll sing in grand chorus the old refrain:
"All hail to thee, Our Lady most fair,
We'll glory forever thy name to bear.
Dear Queen, oh deign to bless us thy children.
Loved Mother, loved Notre Dame."

Down ages still in rapturous song
May grateful daughters the strains prolong
'Till eternal portals open wide
With thee loved Queen fore'er to abide.
At that great reunion of Notre Dame,
We'll sing in grand chorus the old refrain:
"All hail to thee, Our Lady most fair,
We'll glory forever thy name to bear.
Dear Queen, oh deign to bless us thy children.
Loved Mother, loved Notre Dame."

Dedication

We, the senior class, lovingly offer to you, our most gracious Lady, the 1958 REGINA. Through the years you have guided and protected us. You have smiled at our joys, comforted us when we were sad, and given us strength when we were afraid to live your way—your Son's way. You have fashioned our minds and hearts in the path of righteous living. Your example has encouraged us to become the true women that we have wished to be. You have done this with a kind, motherly hand—a hand as strong as a whirling wind, yet as delicate as a fragrant flower. You truly are a regal woman, full of love and loveliness. Your school, Notre Dame, has been your theater of inspiration, of love, and of devotion to us. Lovingly, Mary, we dedicate to you our 1958 REGINA.

The Most Reverend
GEORGE J. REHRING, S.T.D.

Senior Memories

September 12, 1954, saw 133 scared freshies looking for classrooms, books, and teachers . . . Big Sisters hurried to the rescue, especially at the Big and Little Sister Party with its impressive candle-lighting ceremony . . . we became full-fledged freshies after the Athletic Club initiation . . . our first trip to Greenfield Village was fun . . . winter turned into spring and we attended our first date dance, "Kademy Kapers" . . . then came a wonderful experience—our first retreat . . . we first sported our class colors at the basketball tournament . . . the green and gold cheered us on to victory . . . then dawned our first Notre Dame Day . . . and then the end of the first page in our scrapbook of high school memories.

In 1955, NDA welcomed 126 sophomoric sophomores . . . our first major project was a playlet, "Around the Clock with Claire," which we presented at an assembly and also at a tea for our mothers . . . Christmas vacation . . . then the practice sessions for the operetta, "Snow White," . . . another retreat . . . another basketball tournament . . . St. Francis de Sales was built and we exchanged several dances with the Knights . . . our best dance was "Blue Nocturne" . . . another Honor Day . . . Notre Dame Day found us reviewing dances through the years . . . the Charleston proved funniest . . . all too soon our "wise-fool" year came to a close with many budding friendships.

Upperclassmen! What an honor! . . . again, our first major project was an assembly—this time for Advent . . . our sodality had a Halloween party and a roller-skating party . . . our first junior-senior dance was "Heavenly Daze" . . . another retreat . . . another tournament (lost again) . . . exams . . . Honor Day . . . and the year's two brightest highlights—the junior-senior banquet in which we took a "Trip to Tu-loo" and our first prom, "Spring Fantasy," at the Secor Hotel . . . another Notre Dame Day and the close of a wonderful year.

In September 1957, 109 proud seniors came to Notre Dame to begin their last year of high school . . . our trip to New York and Washington was too wonderful for words—six sleepless nights and fun-filled days . . . our dance, "Deep Purple," sparked our November calendar . . . our play, "The Desk Set," was a challenge to our dramatic ability . . . eagerly we awaited our ring ceremony—one of the most memorable events of our four years at Notre Dame . . . our last basketball tourney proved to be exciting and heartbreaking . . . this time the junior-senior banquet was in our honor; the food was wonderful, surpassed only by the beautiful decorations . . . May 2 and the Secor Ballroom set the scene for our prom; it was more special than ever . . . much too soon came the long-awaited day—Graduation . . . the Bishop presented our diplomas . . . somewhat tearfully we sang for the last time as a class: "We'll never forget thee, loved Mother, loved Notre Dame!"

Classes

"It is the Mass that matters." Agreeing with this statement are these sophomores who have been studying various aspects of the Holy Sacrifice.

"Vincent" might have been the language of the early Romans, but these freshmen prefer to conquer the English translation of that Latin lesson.

Discussion leader, Gloria Garno, directs her fellow panelists in evaluating the dramatic qualities of some American plays.

"The quality of mercy is not strained," say these freshmen as they put their heads together during a discussion of THE MERCHANT OF VENICE.

Elonne Dantzer finds enjoyment in creative aluminum animals while Candi Lavine studies the still-life problems of her fellow juniors.

Judy Lambrix is fascinated by finished ceramic pieces. Elonne Dantzer and Joyce Myers are being initiated in the ancient art of enamelling.

Sophomores Mary Ann Simmons, Linda McFarland, Patricia Ryan, and Patricia Kieffer examine textile painting and belt weaving. Diane Wille looks at free-brush painting and counter-change problems while Geraldine Zmijewski and Karen Leppert display applied design on wood.

"A picture is worth more than 1,000 words," comments Kathleen Pietras as she examines slides and films. Sharon Benton, Gloria Rutkowski and Beverly Dydo look at American folk art and paintings in their study of American art.

Virginia Robison, third-year art student, is displaying one of the panels in designed aluminum. Lynda Price and Candi Lavine are busy at lettering and illumination.

Seniors Judy Lambrix and Joyce Myers are captivated by the creativeness of mosaics.

Speed

Accuracy

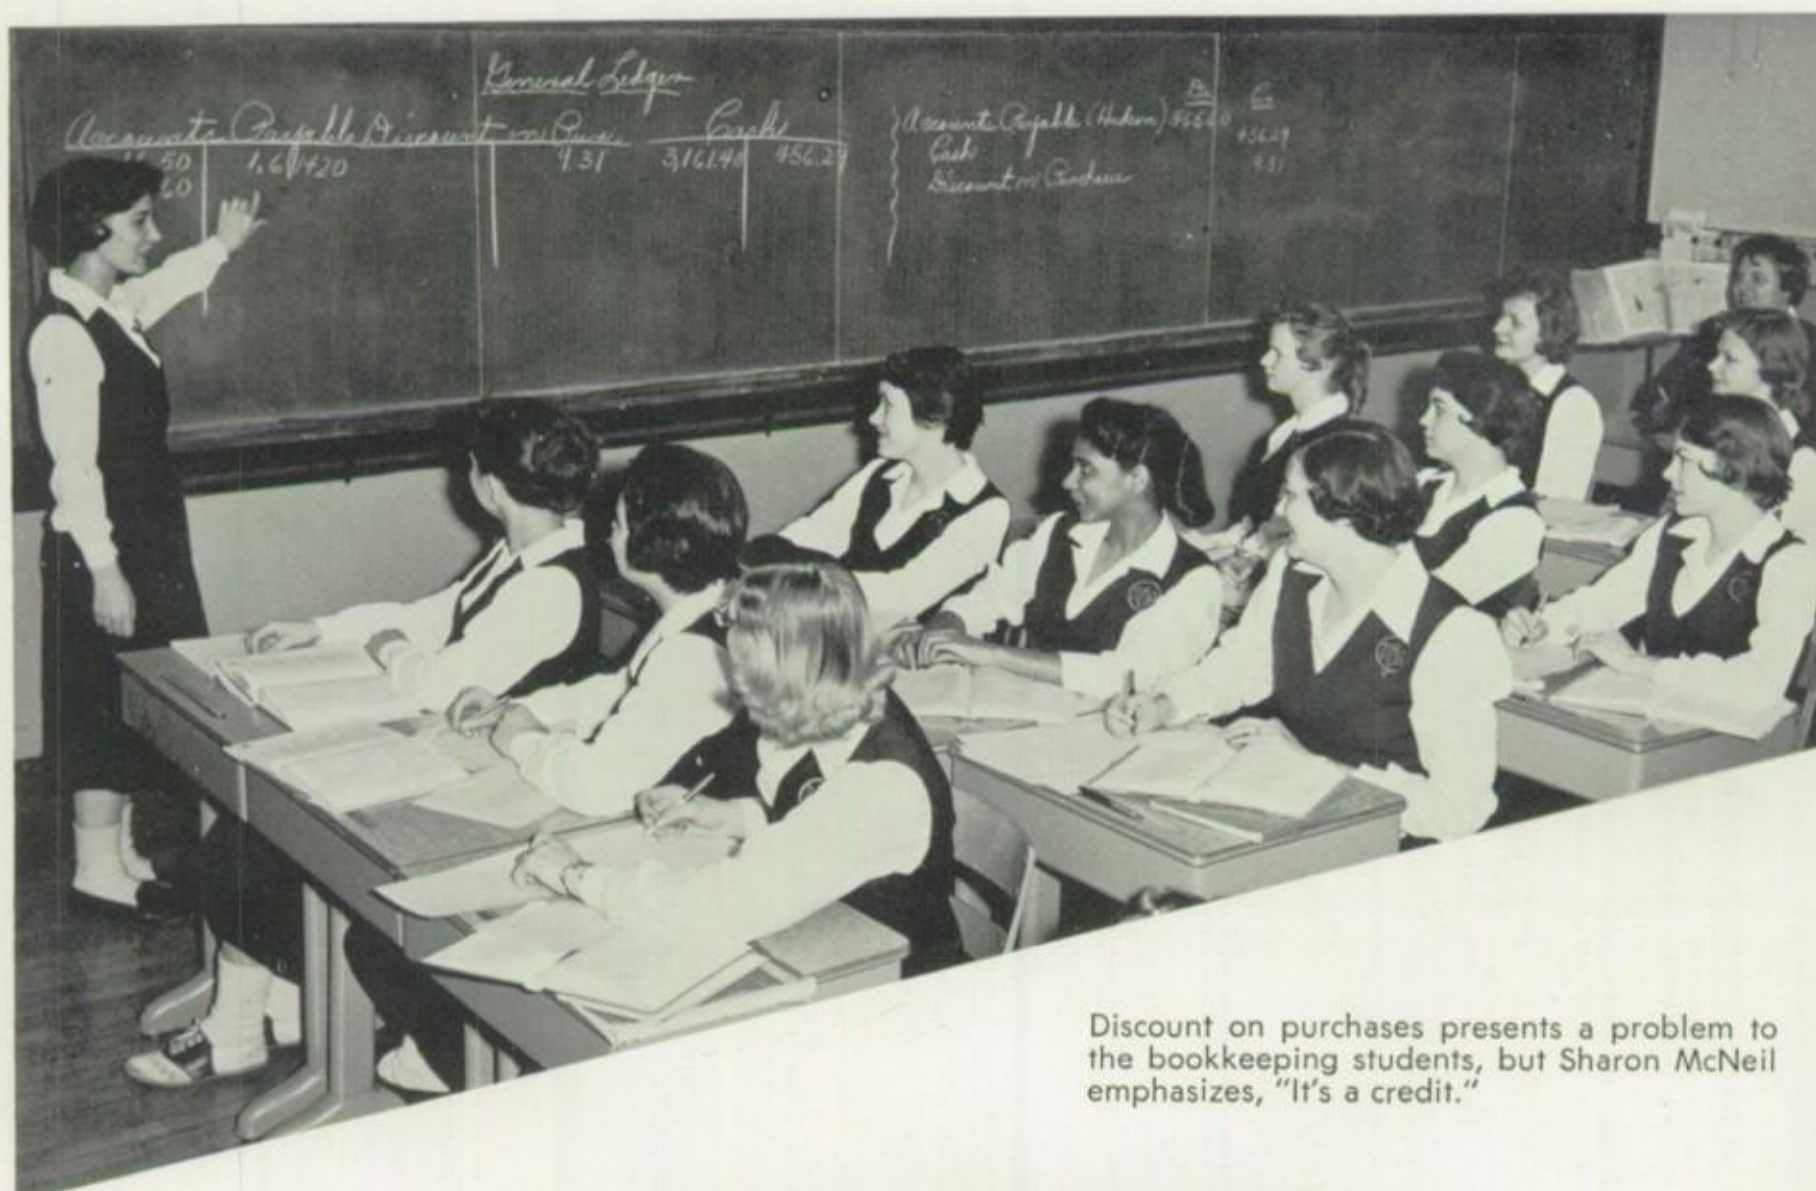

Efficiency

Backs straight! Heads up! Typing I students practice exercises which really make the typewriters sizzle.

"Set it for 500," says Sue Smith as she explains to Beth Landin the number of copies required for this mimeograph job.

Discount on purchases presents a problem to the bookkeeping students, but Sharon McNeil emphasizes, "It's a credit."

Seniors Evelyn Topolewski, Mary Ann Desmond, Rita Giovanoli, Sharon Robinson, and Judy Wurzell demonstrate the various office machines and their use.

Dictaphone diligence is exemplified by Bonnie Carle and Mary Ann Desmond, while Patricia Kazmierski, Judy Novak, Margaret Masney, and Carolyn Ceglie use the "light touch" on their electric IBM's.

Geraldine Seymour prepares herself for a future "spying" position as she learns the secrets of shorthand. Gerrie seems quite eager to transcribe her newly acquired knowledge for her fellow agents.

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low . . ."

"And the little white bed went bump, bump, bumpety, bump." Carol Peatee relates one of her favorite childhood stories to a group of enthusiastic "young" speech students who seem quite absorbed.

Wearing a smile of satisfaction in work well done, Judy Haas and Margaret Leahey record their words for posterity. Judy Holke is at the recorder.

"For heaven's sake, who ever thought indefatigability meant that!" exclaims Marijo Woodward to Sharon Swiergosz. Meantime Judy Pheatt is taking down the definition of another word as dictated by Mary Jo Young. Linda Murphy is energetically looking up the next definition. Cue to future speech students: Acquire the dictionary habit by this time-saving method!

"I Speak for Democracy" proclaims Barbara Apanaitis. Giving her some helpful hints are Eileen Heckman and Toni Miller. At the controls are Kay Klingaman and Mary Kaye Renaux.

An earnest smile all the while keeps Paula Deatrick on the side of her opponent as she presents her side of the argument in a formal debate. Listening attentively for any flaws are Carole Peatee, Barbara Apanaitis, Nancy Louviaux, Jean Nuhfer, Sue Albin, and Geraldine Kumor.

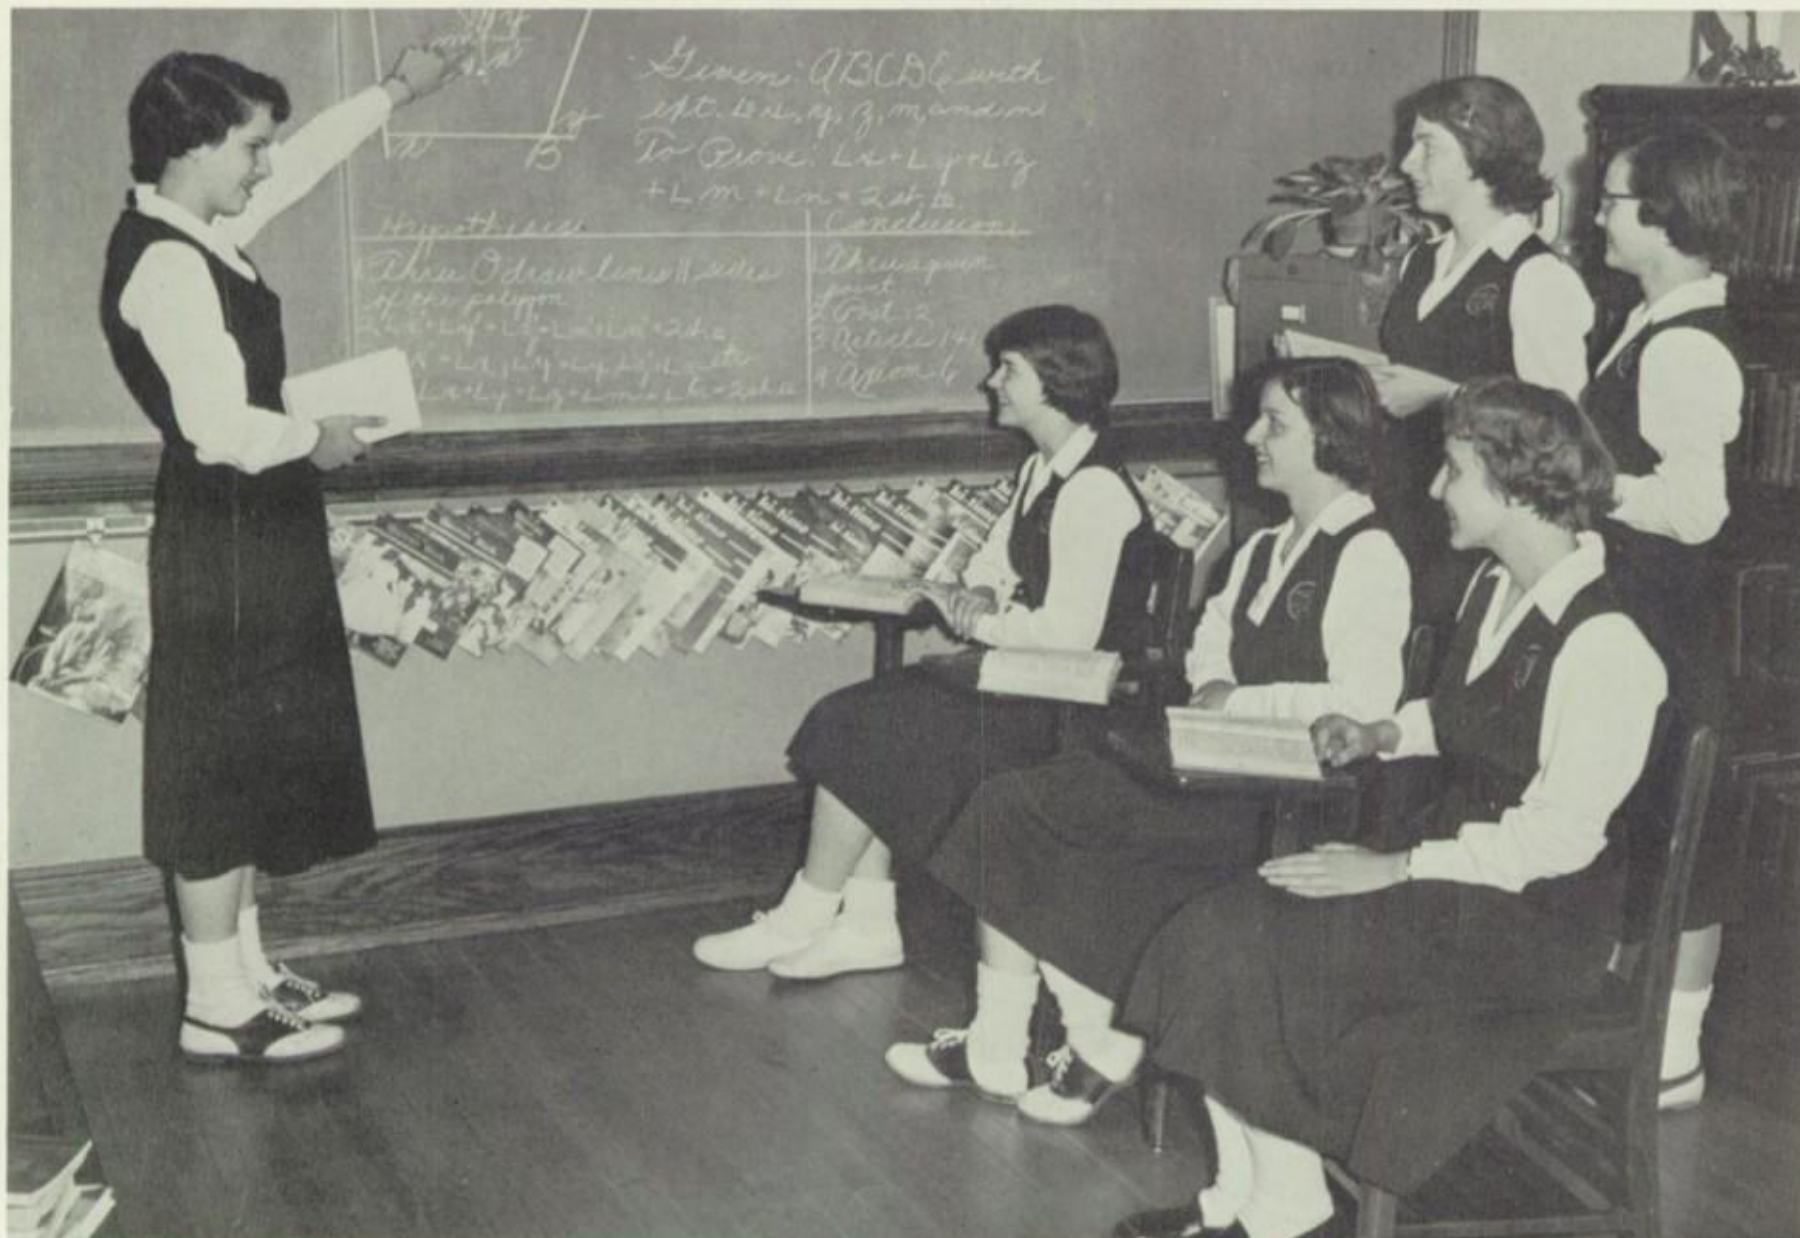

All eyes are focused on Diana Ewing as she explains and demonstrates some of the fundamentals of speech. Giving their approval are Beverly Cessna, Miriam Eble, Charlotte Glinka, Peggy Collins, and Anne Carroll.

History

Quiz mistress Carol Momenee fires brain-twisting questions to her fellow modern historians.

Given: Homework

Find: Sophomores slavishly submissive to the contents of their textbooks.

To Prove: Marv Ann Simmons, Gloria Rutkowski, Kathleen Pietras, Karen Leppert, and Barbara Moser can really find those conclusions.

Happy, hungry seniors await their turns in the noontime lunch line.

Bio-lites

Examining with interest some of the eye-catching antics of under-water prowlers are Geraldine Zmijewski and Ruthann Heintschel. Mary Ann Elias is pointing out to Alice Thompson an interesting "worm" fact.

Proudly Karen Szymczak explains her spice collection to fellow project workers.

"I have it in focus," exclaim the biology-minded sophomores as they probe into the intricacies of a butterfly wing.

Going about various tasks which keep the biology "guinea pigs" buzzing, chirping, and splashing are Maureen Mackley, Ruth Ann Bockey, Marianne Valiton, and Lynne Edinger.

The wonders of nature never cease to baffle budding biologists! Carol Brazeau and Theresa Kochan are fascinated by the life in a terrarium, while Dolores Garrett, Michele Pfeiffer, Janice Miller, and Janet Irmen prove that they have a green-thumb technique.

Physiology

Unpuzzling the puzzle of dead "Ernie" are these puzzle-determined physiology puzzle fixers: Ann Thompson, Linda Burks, and Ann Cheney; (seated) Ruth Weber, Judith LaJeunesse, and Mary Jo Young.

Chemists in Action!

Firing up their bunsen burners for another trip into the land of atoms and molecules are ND's modern Priestly's.

"Madame Einsteins"

Physics whizzes Eileen Heckman, Sue White, Margaret Roughton, Margaret Gorka, and Joanne Extejt of NDA's science program are intrigued with their experiment on the heat of vaporization.

Among the Books

Putting the final touch to the Book Week exhibit are Paulette Pawlowski and Judith Baker, student librarians.

ND's Melody Misses

"With a song in their hearts" senior glee club members fill the halls with pleasing melodies.

Make Merry

Comprising the glee club's octave of senior notes are Eileen Reilly, Joann Brancheau, Dolores Rodriguez, Rita Schultz, Carol Lucas, Diane Farmer, Antoinette Miller, and Judith Young.

Giving Mary Ann Kasper and Carolyn Kasper support while they play a duet are Christine Douthett, Charlene Chambers, and Mary Ann Elias. Absent: Alice Lehman

Playing Beethoven's best! Keyboard magicians of NDA's School of Music entertain parents and friends at semi-annual recitals. Waiting their turn while Margaret Benda "tickles the ivories" are Carol Brazeau, Susan Hancock, Carolyn Moore, and Kay Madigan.

Clothing Cues

All the steps from pattern to pressing are mastered by these nimble-fingered seamstresses! Casual wearing apparel for work or study has the spotlight for Barbara Fligor, Sharon Duncan, Mary Margaret Puhl, LaDonna Bondy, Pamela Reed, and Mary Jo Quinlan.

Early risers from pleasant dreams! "Will it fit?" query Donna Engel and Mary Cooley. Margaret Gorka, Mary Margaret Mayers, and Charlotte Glinka are also sporting togs made in clothing class.

These ND Misses have just the dress for that after-school job or special occasion! A red cummerbund sets off Patricia Coven's gray and white wool, while Sharon Heffner sports a white monogrammed blouse and red pleated skirt. Georgianne Puhl is modeling a red figured blouse and charcoal skirt. For that "extra special" appearance Geraldine Seymour wears a black dress trimmed with a white collar. A detachable collar and black velvet ribbon highlights Mary Dennis's green flannel.

For that dashing date, Cynthia Carrico wears the new style chemise of yellow embroidered cotton. Patricia Fligor models a blue "sweet and low" style date dress, while Jeanne Buehrer poses in a perky summer frock of orchid cotton. Constance Zyskowski models her beige silk party dress.

Tea for two? Miss Margaret Shanteau, instructor, eyes with approval the arrangement and setting for the Get Acquainted Tea. Hostess Judy Johnson is ready to pour, while Marcia Miller places dainty sandwiches on the table.

Foodarama

Janice Culbertson, Kathleen Gilbert, and Donna Miller prepare and pack some holiday goodies for their parents.

Preparing for that gay summer picnic are Sharon Schneider and Carol Smithhisler.

Sparkling-bright windows and a "polished" stove are proof enough that Carol Gunner and Diane Ricucci had a sudden urge for spring housecleaning.

A bit of song added to a bit of grammar makes for a fun-filled French session.

French Class

Eager lasses
rush to classes.

Gym Jills

Flashing smiles of happiness are these volley-ball champs: Judy Grosjean, co-captains Marie Bohls and Michele Pfeiffer, Marianne Jilka (kneeling). Standing are Elena Branchini, Diane Secor, Virginia Auth, and Patricia Pina.

Building can be fun! Comprising this structure are Geraldine Nowak, Catherine Miller, Margaret McDonough, Mary Ellen Marks, Prudence Bailey, Diana Utrup, and Judy Brewer, forming the foundation. Perched aloft are Joanne Mittendorf, Patricia Culbertson, Susan Wetli, Barbara Berning, and Mary Ann McFadden.

Responsible for those active moments in the gym each Wednesday is Mrs. Al Kurucz.

Hit it over! Volley-ball is a "breath-taking" diversion.

Activities

Ring

Ceremony

Eager anticipation and an air of excitement prevailed until the date of the ring ceremony was announced. Seniors' fondest dreams were realized December 18. Mother Mary Eventia, provincial superior of the Sisters of Notre Dame, presented the rings. Members of the class of 1957 explained the symbolic significance of the ring crest.

Especially honored were the alumnae mothers of the seniors. Posed with their daughters are Marian Young Woodward, '32, and Marijo; Alice Osborne Fligor, '38, and Patricia; Clara Ruetz Johnson, '38, and Judith; Mary Margaret Templin Klingaman, '33, and Kay; Dorothy Selz Brancheau, '31, and Joann; Virginia Fuzekas Myers, '35, and Joyce; Betsy Frolicher Martin, '37, and Judith; Ladonna Walsh Jakcsy, '32, and Dianne Crampton.

December 18, 1957

The 1958 mother-daughter "twosome's" also include: Agnes Russell Farmer, '22, and Diane; Eleanore Kwapich Rogers, '35, and Sharon; Laura Hosfeld Bohls, '29, and Carol; Angela Donovan Dennis, '21, and Mary Agnes; Irene Pawlicki Murphy, '28, and Linda; Marge Donnally Holzemer, '28, and Mary Therese; Delphine Zygila Thor, '34, and Karen.

Assisting in the explanation of the crest were Lynne Walker, Mary Wenzler, Joanne Mahoney, Mary Jane Watson, Sharon Bowsher, and Mary Lou Smith, graduates of 1957.

Senior Thespians

Lo and behold, who is getting made up but the boys from St. Francis! Lacking make-up experience, George Fall, Tony Wernert, Joe Wenzler, and Tom Ireland are being assisted by Elaine Ulrich, Kathleen Gallagher, and Judy Pheatt.

Chatter and cheer combine to make the office hum with activity.

"The Desk Set"

While Eileen Reilly and Tony Wernert are busily engaged in a personality quiz, they fail to notice the three "peeping Toms."

Wearing exultant grins for the press are Diana Ewing, Tony Wernert, and Paula Deatrick. Looking on with approval are Constance Reger, Eileen Reilly, and Carole Peatee.

December 6, 7, and 8

The camera caught the behind-the-scenes crew as they were busily setting the stage for Act II. Snapped were Peggy Collins, Barbara Apantitis, Nancy Louviaux, Jerianne Overman, Mary Kaye Reneaux, and Suzanne LeNeave.

Peg Costello (Diana Ewing) wishes a Merry Christmas to her fellow office workers.

The office crew skeptically welcomes Emmarac "to assist" them with their numerous research problems.

Geraldine Kumor presented the between-act talk at the senior class play.

Romance blossoms between "Abe" and "Bunny."

For her patient understanding and valuable suggestions in making "The Desk Set" a stellar performance, Mrs. Wernert rates an "Oscar" from the cast.

Cast of "The Desk Set" pose for the grand finale.

Big-Little Sister Day

"Getting To Know You" serenaded the seniors as they welcomed their "little sisters" to an afternoon of gaiety, games, fun, and food.

Freshmen emerged from the Athletic Club initiation as full-fledged good sports of Notre Dame!

Trav-a-long

So long, Toledo! Eastward, Ho! via the B & O. With vim and vigor New York, Washington-bound senior travelers take off, but a week of sight-seeing left them weak and weary.

ACADEMY CLASS '58
ON D.C. OCTOBER 1957
VIA TEEN TOURS

Student Council

Pleased smiles indicate that Student Council officers are delighted with school events and are anticipating a bright future. Pausing for a pose are Kathleen Peatee, treasurer; Karen Thor, secretary; Miriam Eble, president; and Sandra Buckley, vice-president.

Homeroom representatives are Mary Ann Desmond (306), Sallye Longeway (401), Ann Thompson (201), Erma Longeway (201), Louette Johnson (401), top row. Row 3: June Schumacher (109), Lucy Sawyer (109), Miriam Makovic (301), Joyce Seymour (301). Row 2: Susan Hancock (302), Barbara Bova (302), Mary Ann Simmons (304), Patricia Bender (304). Row 1: Patricia Rack (309), Carol Momenee (305), Sheila Munger (403), Caroline Kasper (403), Virginia Auth (305). Absent: Suzanne LeNeave (306), Mary Grace Carroll (309).

Regina Staff

"Busy, busy, on the run! Yearbook construction is such fun!" That's what the staff of the 1958 REGINA say as they sort, crop, and paste pictures and give their approval of important decisions concerning covers, designs, lay-outs, and division pages.

Comprising the staff are Barbara Apanaitis, Anne Carroll, Margaret Collins, Miriam Eble, Judith Haas, Erma Longeway, Nancy Louviaux, Antoinette Miller, Carole Peatee, Judith Pheatt, Constance Reger, Susan Secor, Susan Smith, Sharon Swiergosz, Elaine Ulrich, Georgia Utz, and Marijo Woodward.

The Editors

Scouting for news . . . getting ideas for features and editorials . . . writing . . . re-writing . . . meeting deadlines . . . galleys . . . page make-up . . . headlines . . . circulation — that's the routine job of the journalism class for each issue of THE NOTRE DAME.

Comprising the editorial staff are Patricia Ragan, Karen McDermott, Mary Ann O'Neil (standing); Betsy Brewer, Kathleen Peatee, Mary Ann Sadler, Nancy Boes.

Publication Staff

Sodality

Paying tribute to Our Lady of Lourdes are junior sodality officers Linda McFarland, Mary Ann McIlhargey, JoAnn Hoyt, and Mary Ann McFadden.

"We're off," exclaim the officers of the senior sodality as they leave for their annual sodality retreat. Eagerly awaiting their arrival at the Retreat House, Marywood, Ohio, are Judy Roberts, vice-prefect; Patricia Hagerty, treasurer; Eileen Heckman, secretary; and Mary Jo Young, prefect.

"Deep Purple" set the mood for the sodality dance. Admiring the fountain between dances are Kathy Peatee, Dan Roughton, Thomas Brady, and Judy Roberts.

Members of the journalism class enjoyed an informal interview with Miss Anne Culkin, who captured the hearts of NDA'ers with her charm and personality.

Prayer, study, and sacrifice comprise a busy program at NDA. Greatly boosting the mission spirit is the annual clothing drive sponsored by CSMC officers Mary Ann Sadler, treasurer; Marilyn Dompier, secretary; Charlotte Glinka, vice-president; and Judith Haas, president.

Preparing to send smiles across the miles are Junior Red Cross officers Constance Reger, secretary-treasurer; Kay Klingaman, president and JRC High School Council president; Judy Johnson, vice-president; and Marcia Kwiatkowski, treasurer of Chapter-wide Council of JRC.

Homeroom helpmates in Red Cross projects are Constance Reger (201), Marcia Kwiatkowski (305), Laani Cook (403), Jeanne Behan (304), and Mary Ann O'Neil (401) standing. Kneeling are Judy Johnson and Kay Klingaman (306), Marie Bohls (302), Karen Campbell (301), Lee Ann Kaiser (109), and Patricia Rack (309).

Heading ND'S band of mission workers, are the homeroom representatives Donna Kowalewski, Linda Stoll, Peggy Lawrence, Mitzi Irwin, freshmen; Rita King, Donna Lubinski, Patricia Bender, sophomores; Sharon Grosjean, Elonne Dantzer, Kay Madigan, Karen Borgerson, juniors; Jean Nuhfer, Joan Lubinski, Judy Young, Juanita Pina, seniors.

Debates and discussions highlight the activities of the Junior Council on World Affairs Club. To promote interest in world affairs, a group of interested seniors meets regularly to delve into national and international problems.

Heading the club are Diana Ewing, vice-president; Geraldine Kumor, secretary; Peggy Collins, president; Judy Pheatt, treasurer; and Judy Holke, area treasurer.

Notre Dame's own Betty Crocker! Sharon Rogers proudly accepts her gold pin, token of her home-making ability as evidenced in the Search for the Home-maker of Tomorrow examination.

"For a future that's bright, be a leader in white," says Karen Borgerson, treasurer, to Toni Miller, president; Cynthia Carrico, secretary; and Judy Black, vice-president — officers of the Future Nurses Club.

"Rah, Rah, Chronicle Rah!" Nancy Boes, Gloria Garno, Donna Engel, and Mary Lou Wasserman added more zing to the rally. Patricia Grover emceed the program.

With devilish delight juniors sparked the Chronicle Rally with a lively skit, "It Beats the Devil." Proudly displaying their "H's" are Mary Ann Sadler, Betsy Brewer, Mary Elonne Dantzer, and Kathleen Peatee. Mary Jo Jarosi is busily working for her coveted "H."

St. Lucy's Day and it's a great day for the seniors! Underclassmen delighted in honoring the seniors with more remembrances to add to their already bulging scrapbooks.

Looks like a masquerade party, doesn't it? But the truth behind it all is that these belles belong to "The Future Actresses of America Club." Displaying their talents on the stage of St. Francis High were Mary Ann Sadler, Sharon Grosjean, Marilyn Dompier, top row; Mary Ann O'Neil, Kathleen Peatee, Karen Borgerson, row 2; and Donna Carroll, seated.

Blessed Days of Retreat

Under the direction of Rev. J. I. Schill and Rev. Paul Mueller, NDA students spent March 24 and 25 in prayerful silence and recollection.

Prom Time

It's another moment to remember as Suzanne LeNeave and her escort, Bill Alderson, prepare to leave for the junior-senior Prom in the Ballroom of the Hotel Secor.

Our Queen and her court! Selected by the student body for their personality, poise, and beauty were Kathleen Gallagher, Diana Ewing, Queen Suzanne LeNeave, Elaine Ulrich, and Elizabeth Landin. These "beauties" represented Notre Dame at the Area Student Council Dance, February 4.

Notre Dame's Regina

SODALITY PREFECT Mary Jo Young presents a crown of flowers to Notre Dame's first lady, MARY IMMACULATE.

Sportviews

Keeping a watchful eye on sports at NDA are the four officers of the Athletic Club: Lynda Price and Nancy Boes, secretaries; Nancy Louviaux, vice-president; and Margaret Roughton, president.

"Which of the trio will make a strike?" ask these cheering onlookers, Hmm! Now wouldn't you gals be surprised if they all got a rousing "300"?

Taking time out from practice to pose for the "birdie" are Mary Ellen Marks, Pamela Reed, Judy Brewer, Rita King, and Sandra Zaremski: members of the Team O'Teeners, first-place team of the B-league.

Champ of her division in bowling is sophomore Maureen Mackley. Maureen bowled her way to a professional 123.

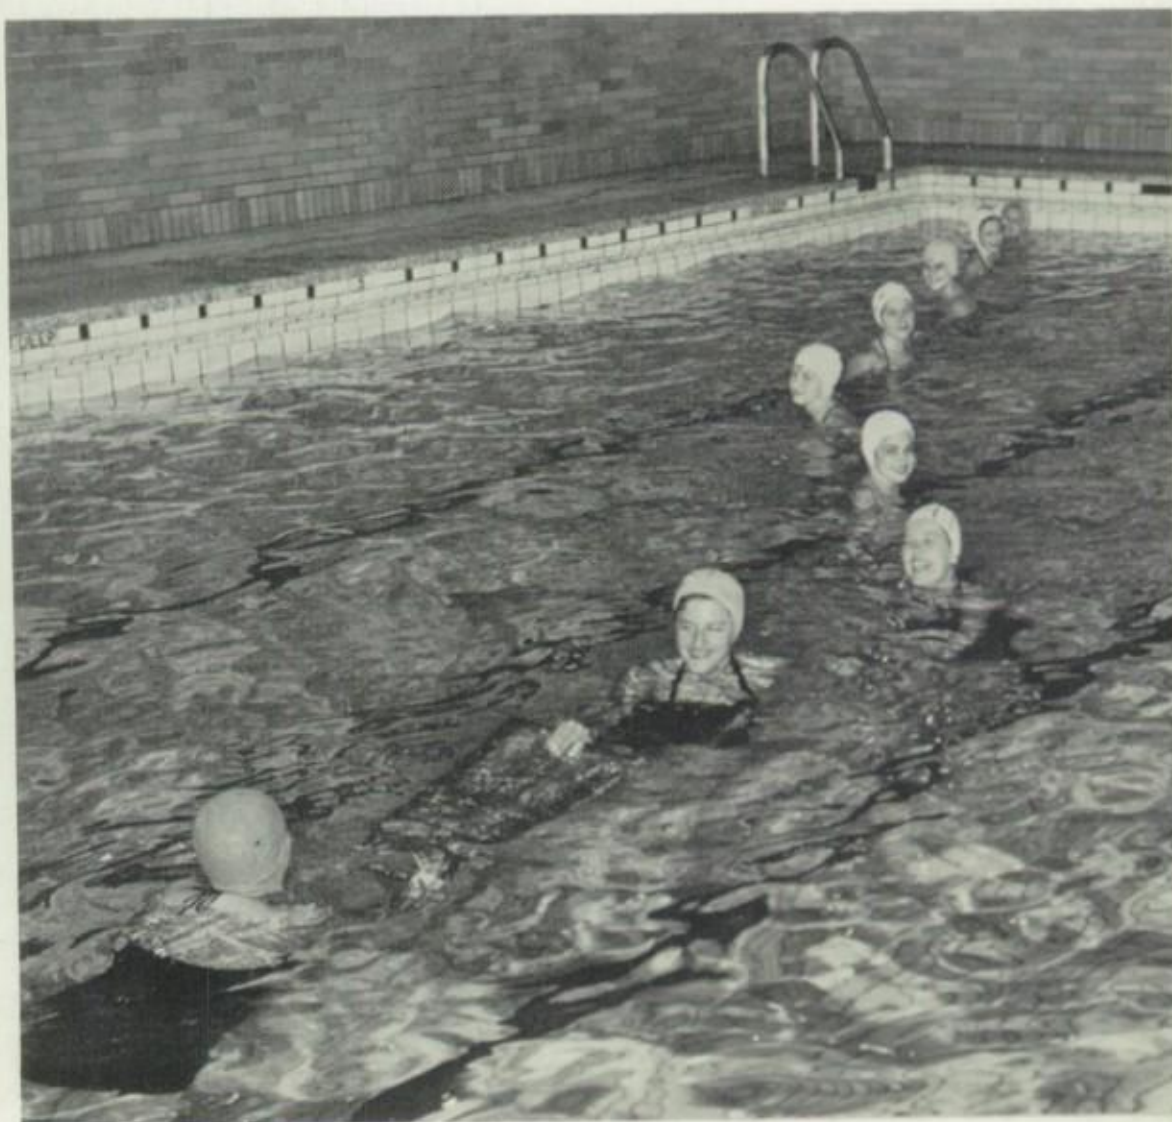

Anticipating the results of the game, Gloria Garno and Mary Lou Wasserman patiently wait for Elonne Dantzer to finish calculating the score.

Flashing winners' smiles are the Bowling Jets: Judy Haas, Anne Carroll, Margaret Roughton, Georgianne Puhl, Carolyn Bender.

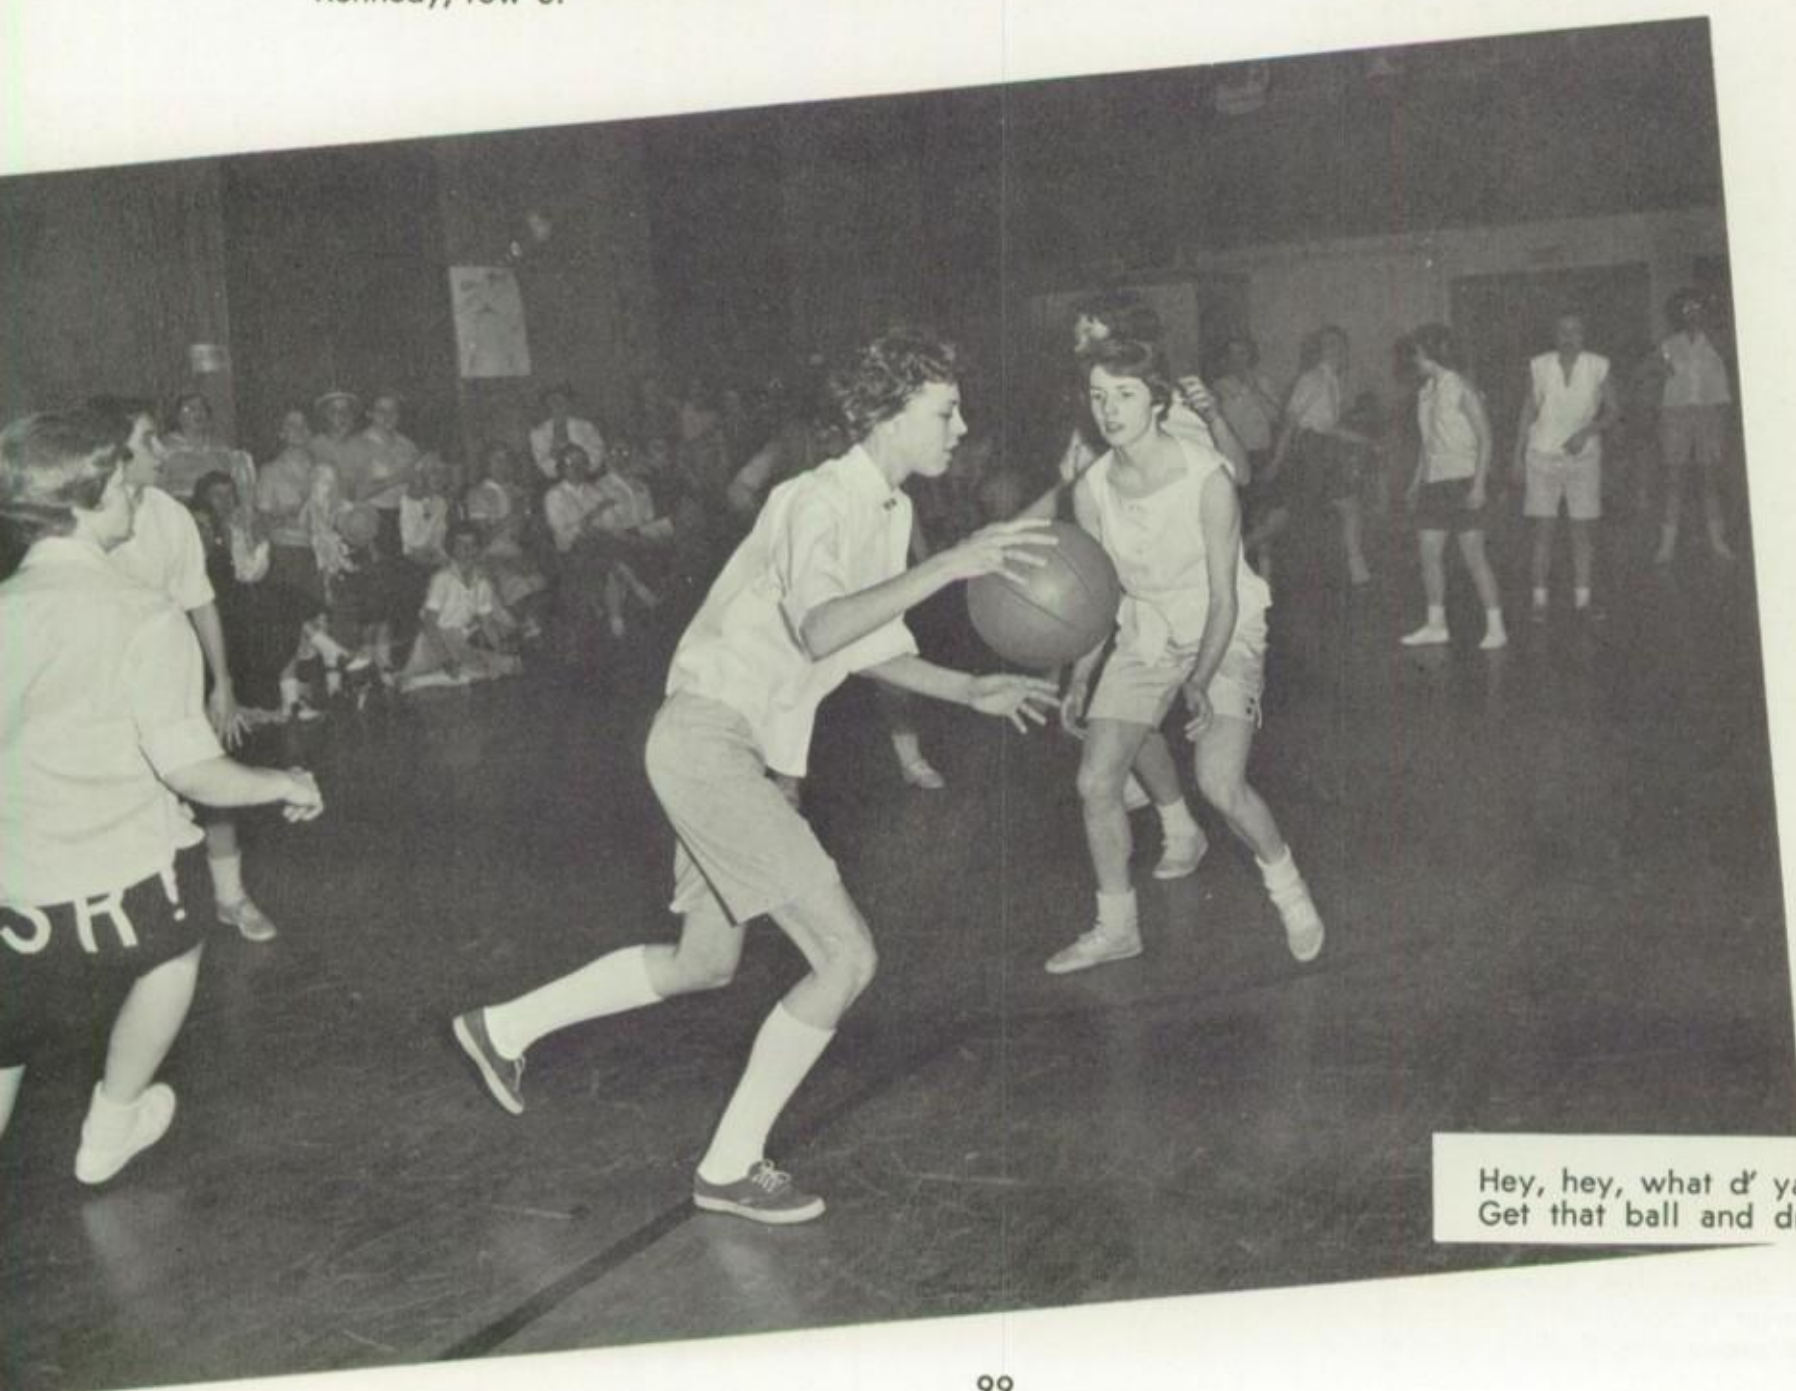

Preparing to display her talents as a top-notch ND bowler is Joann Brancheau, senior, who sports an average of 143.

ND'S Esther Williams's

Blue and white won the fight for the second year in a row by edging the seniors, 36-33, in a spirited, fight-to-the-finish tourney game. Smiling victors are Gerry Zeiler, Ellen Moran, Betsy Brewer, Maureen Gallagher, Judy Ardner, Karen McDermott, row 1; Rosemarie Smith, Mary Ann Sadler, Karen Campbell, Nancy Boes, Joyce Seymour, row 2; Nancy Bascom, Lynda Price, Betty Holt, Kathleen Smith, Louette Johnson, Coach Kathleen Kennedy, row 3.

Hey, hey, what d' ya say?
Get that ball and dribble!

Ballet in basketball? Juniors and seniors gracefully jump for the rebound!

Glass Has Made A Difference

Now is the time to reflect upon the "good ole' days" in school—the many friends, your favorite teachers, sports and dances and parties. But when looking at today's school architecture, we think you'll agree that glass has made a difference!

Here's picture-proof that school corridors don't have to be dark and dreary tunnels. No longer must walls be solid and opaque. Today, more attention is being paid to daylight and view.

When reflecting upon the advantages of this glass age, we think you'll agree that the "good new days" are better.

THIS YOU CAN DEPEND ON...

In whatever line of endeavor you engage—business or industry, the professions, science—you will use more electricity to do more things easier, better, cheaper.

And this, too, you can depend on: business-managed, investor-owned electric companies like Toledo Edison will continue to plan and build ahead so you can LIVE BETTER, ELECTRICALLY.

Thank You

The REGINA staff would like to thank all those who made the 1958 yearbook possible. We are especially grateful to our advertisers, sponsors, and patrons who financed our yearbook. To Mr. Merl Eiserling, service representative of Litho-Art, Inc., for prompt, efficient service . . . to the John K. Wakelin Studio for photography . . . to DeLuxe Craft Company for the covers . . . and to the faculty and student body for their cooperation — to these we are especially indebted.
